31st august-14th september 2020

30 participants max

Monterosi, Arezzo, Italy

The background of the slide is a photograph of a vast, open landscape. It features rolling green hills and mountains under a clear, bright blue sky. The hills are covered in lush green grass, and there are some rocky patches visible on the slopes. The overall scene is peaceful and natural.

Thank you for the interest in the Contact Silence Retreat

We kindly ask you to read the whole document carefully before proceeding with the registration.

Silence

The principal and constitutive element of the retreat, silence opens our sensitivity and listening, essential elements of contact improvisation: for this reason in the area of the platform we will maintain it constantly.

In the rest of the retreat area it will be possible to speak from the end of the morning silence circle to the beginning of the evening silence circle.

At night we will donate the entire retreat area to silence, dance, and listening.

Nature

The retreat will take place in Monterosi, a mountain hamlet of Anghiari, a wonderful medieval village in the province of Arezzo. The house that hosts us is isolated in nature, has a wonderful room with wooden floor and a very large outdoor platform, overlooking a magnificent panorama: if the weather is good we can dance outdoors!

The Contact Improvisation Jam

The principal practice of the retreat, the Jam is designed for people with previous experience in contact improvisation in which to explore, as well as the relational, technical, and dynamic movements that characterize the CI, even the meditative, spiritual, emotional and the inner search of the practice, the search for the essence of contact.

There are two Jams per day:

Silent Jam

Starts after the morning circle of silence and doesn't include music or singing.

Jam

Starts after the evening circle of silence.

Who has the desire to play an instrument or to make sounds with his own body is free to do so, while keeping the space free from verbal expressions.

Meditation

The retreat is conceived as a meditative / contemplative space.

Meditation

We will sit in silence with the same orientation, with our eyes closed or open, standing still or moving.

Circle of silence

We will sit in silence in a circle, with our eyes closed or open, our bodies still or in movement.

Practice guidelines

If sitting in meditation is something completely new do not worry, you can express it in the circle of speech or privately to a focalizer. The first steps will be suggested.

If you are already a practitioner of any spiritual or religious tradition, feel free to meditate as you wish, as long as you maintain the silence.

For beginners the initial indication is slow down, stop, sit and listen, then in the talking circle, dance and afternoon experiences conducted by the focusers will inevitably provide the objects on which to stand.

Meditation is a general disposition of the human being and similarly to dance is a way to inhabit space. Dance with the objects of your consciousness.

The space of the retreat is vast with in a protective context that allows you to easily obtain a spot for your individual practice if you wish.

The Word

During the day and outside the platform area we will be able to talk, joke, share and sing. The true and inner silence that we have created in the night, in meditation, in the circles of silence, and during the silent Jam of the morning, will not abandon us anyway and will enter into a relationship with the word, in its forms and its ways.

In any case, remember to make careful use of the word, considering the high degree of sensitivity, openness and deconstructing of the defenses that this intensive practice can create.

Talking Circle

This structured sharing space was conceived for the importance of making the word an economic and functional use for the retreat.

Participants will have the opportunity to speak to the group and express one by one what they are feeling. Everyone will be able to speak (once in each circle) or if you prefer you can just remain silent and listen.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a vast, open landscape. It features rolling green hills and mountains under a clear, bright blue sky. The terrain is covered in low-lying vegetation, and there are some rocky outcrops visible on the hillsides. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

The Fire

We will light a fire every evening after dinner. The area of the fire will be a place of regeneration, sharing and listening. Around the fire it will be possible to sing, dance, play, recite, and read poetry. The days will be intense, so we will not disturb those who are sleeping and those who are still dancing in the space, avoiding being too loud, and using noisy instruments and instead favoring harmonic expressions.

The workshops

The afternoon workshop will be conducted by one or more focalizers and organized during the retreat in their total freedom and creativity. The experiences proposed will be the fruit of their collaboration and their particular reading of the group. They will not be classical lessons of contact improvisation, but proposals for listening, exploration, meditations, bodywork or moving practices that may or may not include contact.

The conductor can use the words to give directions.

Participants are asked to maintain silence and avoid entering the workshop after it has commenced.

Focalizers

Focalizers are experts with years of practice in meditation, dance and contact improvisation that will facilitate the activities, conduct the workshops and will always be present on the platform during jams and meditations.

Musicians

If you are a musician and you want to play in the evening jam, you can do it by coordinating with our musician. During the day you can play in all areas of the retreat except the silent area, while during the night only in the fire area. The music of the retreat is acoustic, without amplification.

Helpers

The retreat includes the presence of helpers who will take care of the participants and the space of the retreat, and will support the activity of the focalizers.

Good Practices

Get the most out of the experience by leaving your camera and smartphone in your tent. If you need to make a call, you can make it just outside the gate of the collection area. Keep it turned off and see what happens.

We invite you to smoke in your tent area or in that of some friend who loves smoking.

Leave drugs and alcohol at home.

Be sure to find someone to entrust your dog to, we are sorry to discriminate against the furry and their owners between large and small, good and rascal, polite or wild so we decided with great regret not to allow dogs access.

Your children and people who do not participate directly in the activities but who can give you support for example in childcare or in the case you have some form of disability, will not be able to enter the 'platform area.

You almost finished reading! Give yourself a moment of silence before continuing.
